Something got lost in the translation. Please correct the minutes as follows. (See RED). And please confirm that this change was made. Thanks, Holly Osborne

"Holly Osborne, resident, noted that the District 5 Option B received the most votes. However when the item was discussed, the consensus was that the area should remain industrial. (Option B rezones a lot to non-industrial.) She also noted that she didn't think the metro based housing should be there because Metro is no longer providing a Metro stop at Inglewood and Manhattan Beach Blvd. She thought that option B was removed, but it was put back in and got the most votes. She said the problem is things are left in and voted on by people who are not informed."

PUBLIC COMMENT – 1ST SESSION

Holly Osborne, resident, noted that the District 5 option B received the most votes, however, when the item was discussed, the consensus was that the area should not be remain industrial. She also noted that she didn’t think the metro-based housing should be there because Metro is no longer providing a metro stop at Inglewood and Manhattan Beach Blvd and she thought it that Option B was removed, but it was put back in and it got the most votes. She said the problem is things are left in and voted on by people who are not informed.

Wayne Craig, District 1, spoke about issues going on within GPAC Commission members and what happens when their final decision is so biased that when it comes to vote by the people, it doesn't pass. He mentioned Senate Bill SB 550 could pass the legislature which could allow the
